

9th Annual IMA Michigan Fall Conference
Monday, October 25, 2010
Kellogg Center, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan

Speaker Bios

Andrews Hooper & Pavlik, PLC:

Gary A. Climes, CPA, Partner

Gary has over 28 years of business leadership, management, and financial experience in the accounting and health insurance industries. He began his career with Ernst & Young and currently leads AHP's business and IT consulting practice serving businesses throughout the state of Michigan and beyond. Gary is based in the Greater Lansing office of AHP.

Topic Description:

Do you know how health care reform will impact you, your employees and your organization? It is important to understand this legislation so you can protect what you have today and plan appropriately for the future.

Duane Reyhl, CPA, Senior Manager

Duane has over 25 years of accounting experience. As a senior manager with AHP, he focuses on audit and forensic accounting. Previously he worked as a partner in charge of auditing, accounting and quality control for a California CPA firm. Duane also teaches at various CPA-related conferences and seminars throughout the country.

Topic Description:

Accounting standards are moving quickly. How will they affect your organization? This session brings you up to date on current, relevant projects of the FASB, AICPA, and international standards setters.

Carrie Hindmon, CPA, Senior Manager

Carrie is a senior manager with AHP's Greater Lansing office. She has over 12 years of experience in public accounting and specializes in corporate, partnership, individual and nonprofit tax compliance and consulting. Carrie works with clients representing a range of industries including closely held businesses and nonprofits.

Topic Description:

2010 tax updates you can't afford to miss.