

DUANE REYHL, CPA
Andrews Hooper Pavlik, PLC

Duane Reyhl is Senior Manager and Director of Consulting at Andrews Hooper Pavlik PLC, Saginaw, Michigan office. Duane has over 25 years of accounting experience with a focus on audit and forensic accounting. He also assists clients with accounting standards implementation. Previously he worked as a partner in charge of auditing, accounting and quality control for a California CPA firm. Duane also teaches at various CPA-related conferences and seminars throughout the country.

Duane joined Andrews Hooper Pavlik in 1998. At Andrews Hooper Pavlik, Duane supervises and performs audit and accounting engagements, consults with clients on management and other areas, advises firm members about accounting and audit matters, performs pre-issuance technical reviews, and leads in-house technical training.

He's a graduate of Michigan State University, a CPA, and member of the AICPA, MACPA, IIA and IMA.