Financial Professionals
in Business*

If you've ever thought about becoming a CMA, now is the time to do it!

Registrations now being accepted for the new CMA exam prep courses at Cleary University

This fall, Cleary University will begin offering CMA exam prep courses aligned with the new two-part CMA exam format. The new Part 1 course will begin on September 11th, and will prepare individuals to sit for the exam during the January/February 2011 testing window. The new Part 2 course will begin in February 2011, and individuals may sit for the exam during the May/June 2011 testing window. By making a commitment now, you could become a CMA in less than one year!

All courses are taught by Dr. Louis Petro, CMA, CPA, at Cleary's Ann Arbor campus, and use the CMA Learning System materials, which were developed by the IMA. If you're serious about becoming a CMA, we've got the program for you! Since Cleary began offering CMA exam prep courses in 2004, pass rates for individuals who have taken our CMA prep courses have always been significantly higher than average pass rates published by the IMA. Please consider joining us this fall!

Please visit www.cleary.edu/cma to register for the courses or contact Lisa Beaudoin at 734.929.9119 for more information.
